

Isaac Eugene Bone

1850-1950 Centennial Biography

Isaac Eugene Bone, son of John and Hannah Elizabeth Webb Bone, was born in Lehi, Utah, November 16, 1887, where he was reared and educated.

He spent his entire life in Lehi, except three years spent in Canada.

He was baptized a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints September 22, 1895, and he received his Priesthood ordinances at various times, being ordained an Elder January 15, 1912.

He was a kind, friendly, amiable and reliable man a great favorite of both children and adults. He worked as clerk in the freight office of the Denver and Rio Grande Railway Company for eight years, and was employed by the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company and secretary of the Lehi Cattle Association. He was a farmer and stockman for several years.

He married Hazel May Powell, daughter of Thaddeus and Esther Ann Powell, June 30, 1911, in Salt Lake City Utah. Later they were sealed in the Salt Lake L. D. S. Temple. Of this union two sons were born: Isaac Richard and Thaddeus John.

Isaac was very considerate of his mother visiting her frequently and doing little chores about the home for her. He died February 17, 1949, of cerebral thrombosis and was buried in the Lehi Cemetery, February 21, 1949.
